EDGIC Artist: Rene Georges

The vision of EDGIC Artist sculpturer Rene Georges is powered through alignment to the beauty harnessed within feminine consciousness.

Rounded forms come alive as his hands move with the rhythm that flows through his veins while his mind ever alert is open to the harmonic vibrations that are embedded into each of his sculptures.

Motivated with a passion to observe the inner workings of his soul, Rene acts without hesitation of his reveries found within his meditations to create the unseen and bring it forward to be seen and experienced.

He courageously walks with the philosophy that tells him his sculptures that are based in simplicity is the sobriety of a form giving the world a new expression with a human side, in motion, in relation, in contemplation.

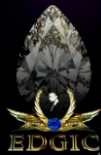

Rene shares, “The beginning of the shape is oval, like an egg, birth, fetus, life, a new being, fragile that plays with empty and full spaces.

These rounded, rather feminine shapes appear, probably in contrast to all those square, straight, rigid buildings, to support and rebalance those poorly curved places.

EDGIC Artist Sculpturer Rene Georges a nomadic artist from Belgium brings to architects a beauty and power that they seek when they surround their architectural creations with the essence of femininity that this great artist offers to augur in a new wave of design.

To own a Rene Georges Sculpture is to be free of conventional form yet aligned to the Laws of Universal Freedom.

ART DIVISION

EDGIC
