EDGIC Artist: Phael Diaz

The variables of life motivate Venezuela Resident EDGIC Artist Phael Diaz to create the intricacies of his awareness into unique and collectable Gallo Pinto ART. His style defines the essence of play that allows his Art Collectors and Art Investors to be continually intrigued with the manifestation of his expression.

The artistic flow of this great artist stem from extensive education and cultural training since his childhood. The value of his studies in Venezuela with Professor Leopoldo La Madriz, Professor Eulalio Toledo Tovar and Professor Wladimir Zabaleta saw a perception of art formats that formed an appreciation for subjects that make up both the spiritual and practical worlds.

Further studies saw international travel take him to E'cole d'Arts Apliquess in Paris, Nuova Academia do Belle Arti in Milan where he studied drawing and painting, while the art of engraving engaged his attention at Serigrafy the school of outdoor painting in Mexico City.

Not content with his achievements, EDGIC Artist Phael Diaz travels saw him move to Buenos Aires where he further expanded his awareness of his art at Art Education Workshop with the Lola Mora school of fine arts and the Art Academy in Oviedo, Spain with Professor Felix Inaqui Arrieta.

Due diligence to following the path of his desire has seen many rewards with multiple exhibitions in Venezuela awhile globally Phael Diaz has been celebrated with exhibitions in Spain, Mexico, France, Germany, Italy, Cuba, Chila and Costa Rica. Awards and more awards continually follow this great artist as he is recognized as an ARTIST of the Future NOW in the primary Art Market.
