EDGIC Artist: Shahin de Heart

At the core of Artist Shahin de Heart artwork is sublime references to what is behind the curtain of the material world that leads the viewer into a space of clarity and certainty through introspection.

The power of this artist's work pulls out energy vibratory links that bring forward the power of gravity from spirit into matter.

Her participation with color intelligence is exciting and enticing as it fills the body with anticipation of what is to come.

Childhood memories form the basis of the principles of design that spring to life under the prowess of her innate skill to capture her visions, while the world through her imaging at an early age defined her interest in color and painting.

EDGIC Artist Shahin de Heart began her life in Tehran and at the age of 11 she was acknowledged as the best Persian Young Painter. Germany is now her homeland and as a freelance artist since 1980 her artworks have been embraced and honoured by sitting in private and public collections.

This artist welcomes you to a world where the power of imagination will set you free to view life through new eyes.

Universal co-operation moves into acceleration through Shahin de Heart artwork to balance the union of Natural Law and Universal Law.
